

THE CORRALS' NEWS

JUNE 2026

Titus 2:1 But as for you, speak the things which are fitting for sound doctrine.

Thank you for taking the time to read our prayer update!! But above all, thank you for praying for us and thank you for your financial partnership. Ps. 149:6 Let the exaltations of God be in their throats, And a two-edged sword in their hand (LSB)

Although we do not know the human author of this psalm, we clearly recognize its call to continual worship and obedience before God. Its message may be summarized as "praise God and work." The Christian life does not separate worship from action, devotion from responsibility, or spiritual service from daily labor. We are called to worship God faithfully while remaining prepared to face the realities of the present age.

This principle was not foreign to the experience of Israel. They trusted in and worshiped God even while carrying their swords in hand (Nehemiah 4.) The point is clear: God's people are not merely to praise with enthusiasm, but also to remain vigilant and prepared for the conflict that lies ahead. At times, we may become complacent in the comforts of the present, largely unaware of the spiritual realities around us and the demands of faithful ministry. What occupies your hands today? Is it a two-edged sword? Worship faithfully—and stand prepared for the battle.

On the family front, we keep praying, worshipping and working. Deborah is wrapping up all her ministry in the church. Marcos and Megan were happily married a couple of weeks ago. Olimpia is back home after her freshman year at TMU. And Mateo and Alexia are up to their duties at school and with sports. It is a mixed-feelings time. We are eager to jump into Valencia, but we already miss our church in Pontevedra. The Lord used these saints in a mighty way for His glory alone.

On the ministry front, all the final classes, sermons, etc. are coming to an end in Pontevedra. Please, thank God for the church in Pontevedra and their pastors. The Berea Seminary will have its commencement in June. The church plant in Valencia is going well. Please, continue to pray for the buying / selling process of our house, the school, a location for the church, and for salvation as I preach Christ, for God's glory. It is a busy summer ahead, with a family visit to the US scheduled!!

- Pray for us as a family and for all the needs prior to arriving to Valencia.
- Pray for our marriage. May Christ be the center of it.
- Praise God for His perfect Grace. Thank you for your prayers and financial support.
- Praise God for He is good, and He does good (Psalm 119:68.) A L W A Y S.
