Apply: By examining his or her response to God's Word.

 John 10:11-18 — The Good Shepherd

1. Consider that Jesus is called both the Great Shepherd (Heb 13:20) and the Good Shepherd (Jn 10:11) — for definition purposes, consider Ps 145:3-6 (great) and Ps 145:7-9 (good)... Why is our Gospel hope that Jesus is both the Great and Good Shepherd?
2. In human relationship terms, what is the connection with someone being "good" and someone demonstrating biblical "love?" How practically might you be "good" to another in the coming week?
3. If Jesus' relationship to the Father is one of both love and obedience, how much more so ought be our relationship to Jesus... What is a particular opportunity for obedience in front of you this week? How might Jesus' laying down His life for you impact that?

Parents: Children are always welcome to sit quietly in our Worship Together. If their activity or sounds begin to hinder the worship of others, we ask you escort them out in the spirit of Romans 12:10.
