1) Man at his Worst

2) God at His Best

DIGGING DEEPER : Reflecting on Today's Sermon

1. What is meant by the leaders "arrogantly managing God"? In what ways are you tempted to engage in this thinking / practice?
2. Where in the Scriptures do we find God using the intentions of evil men to accomplish His own plan? Any time in your life that you recognize He has done this? How does such result in your hope and worship?
3. Consider all the ways in which we might participate in God's intention for Jesus' death to "gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad (v. 52)..."
